

Juana Angela Barrientos Villanueva.
Instituto de Lingüística y Literatura
Universidad Austral de Chile jabarrientos@uach.cl

OBJECTIVE: Apply all my talents, skills and expertise to create successful results in teaching English to second language learners and in translating documents from English to Spanish and vice versa.

EDUCATION:

- English as a Foreign Language Teacher, Universidad Austral de Chile, UACH, Valdivia, 1972. Proud to be the first graduate.
- Language Laboratory Specialist, CPEIP, Chile 1983
- Post degree on Computer Science, Universidad de La Frontera, 2000
- Collegiate professional license as Spanish k-12 from Commonwealth of Virginia Public School System, HCPS, USA, 2005-2010.
- Master Degree on Educational Leadership, Virginia Commonwealth University, VCU 2006-2007.

COURSES TAKEN LATELY:

Fred Jones: Tools for Teaching	Parent and Community Relations
Introduction to Administration	Discipline and Classroom Management
School Law	Improving school performance
Learning to read in the content area	Special Education in the USA

EXPERIENCE:

- Spanish and ESL Teacher through the Visiting International Faculty program, in New Jersey and Virginia, USA, 2004-2007.
- Fulbright Exchange, Colorado, USA 2001-2002 HS Spanish teacher.
- Teaching ESL students in elementary, middle and high schools to provide tutoring to special needs students on an as-needed basis, Woodstown, NJ.
- Assistant Teacher for English Literature at the Austral University, Valdivia, Chile 1972-1974.
- English as a Foreign Language Teacher, La Union, Chile 1980-2001.

ACTIVITIES:

- Japanese facilitator for Hermitage High School.
- International Teacher Spring Workshop presenter, Richmond, VA, 2006.
- American Red Cross Great Richmond Chapter, interpreter 2006
- Book adoption Committee for Henrico County Public Schools, Richmond, VA.
- Volunteer interpreter for Parent Teacher Conference (PTA) Dumbarton Elementary School, Henrico County, Virginia, USA, 2006-2007.
- Hermitage- Dumbarton connection project paired with technology trainer and ESL teachers of Henrico County, VA and broadcasted in School Matters in local TV channel. October, 2006
- TISE 99 y RIBBIE 2000 school teacher invited by Dr. Jaime Sanchez Ilabaca, Enlaces Project Coordinator, University of Chile, Santiago.
- Exchange projects between Chilean and American schools using regular mail and emails 1998-2002
- Interpret for the First Mediterranean Scrub Conference, UACH, 1971
-

Personal details

Home address Letelier 434 La Union / Los Alerces 60 Valdivia
Cell phone (9) 83 600 240 References upon request.